ORDER:

In the reference 1st cited, the Government of India, Ministry of Water Resources, New Dehi has stated that the Minor Irrigation Schemes are techno-economically cleared by the Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) of the respective State Governments or in some cases by the Planning Department of the State Government. The State Government shall ensure that for those MI schemes which it proposes for inclusion in AIBP, a representative of Central Water Commission should invariably participate in the TAC Meeting in which such MI schemes are proposed to be considered for TAC clearance else the MI schemes will not be included in the AIBP. The representative of the Central Water Commission will examine broad parameters of the schemes and therefore, all relevant papers should be sent to him by the State Government well in time.

Government after careful examination in the matter, hereby constitute the Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) at State Level with the following members.:
